

Flavius A. Leightey - Cleo Gerwin - Harry Gleim

F. Guy Shambaugh, 1407 McFarland Ave, Rossville, Ga.

Guy writes -- On Oct. 24, I had a happy surprise when one of my boyhood chums whom I had not seen in 35 years came in on me for several hours, with his wife and her brother and sister. My chum is a retired lawyer in Chicago.

On Oct. 26, I was in school in Atlanta studying about our new G M C. trucks. (Guy is a G M C salesman). I did not get to see Emily, our student nurse in Atlanta Baptist Hospital as she was in a class period.

Around the middle of Oct. Emily went home with one of the senior nurses living in Brunswick, Ga. and got to go fishing for shrimp, and got a large tub full of shrimp ocean catfish, sting rays and a golf ball.

Vernon and Ruby Shambaugh, 361 N. Spring St. Wilmington, Ohio

Again we missed the Shambaugh Reunion but hope to be with you next year.

Vernon and I took a nice little trip recently, going through Virginia, Maryland, and visiting my niece, Mrs Ronald Gottshall in Wilmington, Delaware, then on to Atlantic City, N. J.

We have a new grandson, Anthony J. born to William and Wanda Shambaugh. Bill is a Junior at Wilmington College and Wanda is a receptionist for Dr. Lippert. I am the baby sitter and love my new job.

I'm sorry that we don't know about the grandfather of Mrs Marguirete Ross, since Vernon's grandfather came from Pa., but his name was Levi, and his father, Joseph.

Other Shambaugh's around here are -- Howard and Irene Shambaugh and daughter Camilla, Mr and Mrs Horace Shambaugh and married son Roger.

Rev. Guy H. and Anna May Kintz, Boaz, Wis.

During the year 1959 we have served the Boaz and Sylvan E U B churches as pastor, and assisted in revival services at Mascotine, Iowa; Sugar Grove, Ind.; and Deiter Hollow, Wis. I saw Bert Shambaugh a short time ago, he and family are fair.

Bert Shambaugh, 539 So. Main St. Richland Center, Wis.

We are pleased to know that you had a very nice crowd at your reunion. We have been having one of the worst autumns in the history of Wis., rain and cold weather.

We are planning to be at the next reunion.

Mrs Elsie Ruch, R 1, So Whitley, Ind.

I am sorry for you in a way, having the news letter job so long, but I do think you do a wonderful job. Suspect those that know a number of Shambaughs must really enjoy the reunions.

I am the great granddaughter of Lucretia Shambaugh Applegate, my father Clarence Applegate was a first cousin of Cleo Gerwin and F. Guy Shambaugh.

Marlin Mills, P O Box 126, Cambridge, Ohio.

I left Cambridge on Nov. 23, for Mastic, Fla. and expect to stay until April.

William and Clyde Kelley, R 3, Carrollton, O. celebrated their 65th. wedding anniversary on Oct. 31, 1959. Mr Kelley was 86 on Sept. 29, Mrs Kelley 84 on Oct. 17.

Carl and Jennie Shambaugh, Sr. 3006 Trabue Rd. Columbus, O. writes that their son Harold enlisted in the Navy at Great Lakes on Sept. 18, 1959.

Miss Iva Tomlinson, Box 25, Browntown, Wis. writes -- I am well, and am taking part in the Christmas program of the Sunday School, and I still sing, as my voice is good as in my younger days.

Miss Junia Shambaugh, 222 Farrigut St. N. W. Washington, D. C.

Sorry we never get to the reunion, maybe some day. I had a delightful tour of Europe last summer.

Fred and Beatrice Fortney, MR 8, Dice Rd. Gallien, O.

We are preparing to leave early in Jan. on a leisure trip for points South, stopping to see relatives and friends, then on to Fla. hoping to see the Keys.

May stay until early spring or travel a bit farther west.

Frank and Ethel Seeley, 516 - 20th. St. N. E., Mason City, Iowa

Have had a very disagreeable fall, rained and snowed so much earlier, it seems we have had two months winter already.

Guess Alma and Mildred had a real good time at the Reunion. We're still hoping.

On Thursday, Nov. 5th. at 4:20 A M. your editor and wife with granddaughters Ann and Drucilla started for Gatlinburg in the Smoky's, arriving that evening for a couple of days visit with Mrs Cleo Gerwin and found her very much alive, and a wonderful hostess. And it rained lightly most all the way there, and Friday too. As always, we enjoy our visits with Cleo very much.

Then on Sat. forenoon we left for Rossville, Ga. to visit with F. Guy Shambaugh and families, and Oh! Boy, what a nice time we had there too. The families all came in for Sunday dinner, over 20 present, and a surprise for all, by Miss Emily who is a student nurse at the Baptist Hospital in Atlanta, with a friend, came home for the day. We also were in the homes of Bud and Ruth Nave, also Wanda Sue and Stanley Howard who were recently married.

Starting Monday forenoon on a leisurely trip home, arriving Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock, 1285 miles. We also stopped in Wilmington, O. on the way home for a pleasant call on Vernon and Ruby Shambaugh, son Bill and little grandson.

An Omission -- In the last issue, No. 63 near the bottom of page three, in the item of Verner Shambaugh, your editor overlooked mentioning the death, on May 8, 1953 of a brother, Albert F. Shambaugh. (N-L 35 page two) So to complete the obituary, please type or write in the center space -- And a brother, Albert Franklin Shambaugh deceased.

Rev. Harry and Ina Gleim, Dike, Iowa

Our Nov. weather was coldest in history, have had more rain and more snow and nearly 9 degrees below normal temperature. The Weather Bureau puts it, a month to forget. We have had many friends visit us thru the year from many parts of Iowa, Wis. and Wyoming, and wish there had been many more.

We also spent a most enjoyable vacation in Aug. although it was most uncomfortably hot, into Nebr. visiting with friends in Harvard, Edgar, Ong, Hardy and Byron. The high light of the trip came on Sunday when Harry occupied his old pulpit in Hardy and the church people gave us a complimentary dinner.

Floy and Jay Shambaugh, now at Box 19, Bull Head City, Ariz.

We plan on staying here another year, winters are real nice, fishing is good and no closed season. Glad to hear you had such a nice number at the annual affair. Maybe we will make it next year. (will be looking for you).

Mildred Shambaugh, Volga, Iowa. Nov. was very cold, with snow. Dec. has been nice. We enjoyed our visit with my son Dale B. in Md. they have a nice home there.

The Jesse Shambaugh's of Ind. are spending the winter at 245 Gray, West Palm Beach, Florida.

John and Phyllis Shambaugh, R 3, Wabash, Ind. -- Phyllis says John's mother is not feeling well, has been in the Ft. Wayne Hospital for 4 weeks, but is home now.

A son, Anthony Jenkins, b. Aug. 21, 1959 to Bill and Wanda Shambaugh, Wilmington, O.

A son, Steven Wayne, b. to Eugene and Ruth Scheck, Oct. 19, 1959. Fremont, O.

A daughter, Susan Kay, b. Nov. 1, 1959 to Wayne and Rosemary Bibler, Findlay, O.

A son, Gregory Allen, b. Oct 13, 1959 to P F C and Mrs Edwin Applegate, Ft. Knox, Ky.

$ 4 N - L. -- Vernon and Ruby Shambaugh 1.--, Jay and Floy Shambaugh 1.--, June Shambaugh 1.--, Marlyn Mills 1.--, Alyce T. Shambaugh 2.--, Mrs Elsie Ruch 2.--, Carl and Jennie Shambaugh 1.--, Letter returned -- Mrs Clara Dick.

Our weather here around Upper Sandusky has been nice for winter. The latter part of Nov. we had about six inches of snow and light rains. A little snow in Dec. with light rains again. Our lowest temperature so far was around 15, the middle of Nov. and at this mailing, the 20th. it is in the 30's, and snowing lightly.
